

Sinclair Broadcasting is showing partisan political programming and is not truly representing the viewers it serves. It should be required to air a counter documentary program with disclaimers if they intend to proceed with the airing of "Stolen Honor". Otherwise they should be prosecuted for using the public airways as a means for self servant political gain and illegal political contribution due to the value of the air time given to this blatant misuse of public domain. I agree with the following statements:

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
James Chandler